REFLECTIONS FROM THE PASTOR

I am waiting, impatiently waiting, for the first meadowlark to appear and their spring filled song to be sung. It's not that this winter has been long or difficult. It's that this whole last year seems long and drawn out. I'm desperate to hear the meadowlarks sing. I'm desperate to hear their song of hope. When I hear the meadowlarks singing, it's almost as if everything will be OK.

I am anxious, too, to hear the Easter proclamation. Soon, soon we will be proclaiming "Christ Is Risen!" That Christ will rise from the dead brings hope to our weary bones, our weary lives, brings strength to our struggles, joy to our sadness, comfort to our grief. Soon we will be singing songs filled with hope.

On Easter Sunday, April 4th at 7am or 9:30am, we will shout out together: "Christ Is Risen!" We will sing. We will know the power and promise of the Resurrection.

*In Christ,
Pastor P*
